ST. HEDWIG - Greg Franckowiak, co-owner of St. Hedwig Feeds, starred in a poultry drama titled "Show Broilers and Turkeys" May 2 2006

The show was broadcast on RFD-TV, part of a series called "Ag Lifestyles Show," which can be seen on Tuesdays at 8:30 p.m., C.S.T., and repeated Wednesdays at 4:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m., and Sundays at 10:30 p.m.

Franckowiak was interviewed on the show earlier this year and gave instructions on the proper care of young poultry.

"A lot of people around here saw the show," he said. "One fellow even called from New York and placed an order with us."

The other shows in the series are about show pigs, avian influenza, show heifers, gilt breeding, white-tail deer management, and game bird production.

All the shows are informative, Franckowiak said. He hopes that the show he is in will be shown again on reruns
